

I well remember what things were like before the Indiana "Do Not Call" program was instituted

The vast majority of the nuisance calls I received were from Credit Card companies that I had accounts with and from Long Distance Telephone companies that I had dealt with.

I dread going back to those days. Please deny the banks attempt to weaken the Indiana regulations